

Zeppelin from Bowers & Wilkins

The sleeker speaker

Your iPod is a treasure trove. Pristine digital copies of thousands of tracks, all waiting to be played to their full potential. Zeppelin sets them all free. A full stereo system in one unit, it releases all of the detail and atmosphere that standard iPod/iPhone/MP3 speaker systems miss. Thanks to its unique floating arm and universal docking platform, you can play any iPod on Zeppelin and control it as easily as if it were in your hand. Take high-end sound with you, upstairs, downstairs, outside and poolside. Station it in a den, bedroom, kitchen, office or second home. Zeppelin rocks, wherever you are.
